Students living in off-campus University accommodation

If you have any problems or questions during the vacation please contact Security (see below) or go to a college reception that is open.

Security

Security staff will continue to patrol the campus 24 hours a day and will provide a response service to queries and emergencies.

Non-emergency Requests

If your college Porter is not be available over the Christmas vacation, please use the phone (usually red) in your college foyer to contact the Duty Security Supervisor. Alternatively, dial 4444 from any internal telephone or 01904 32 4444 from a mobile.

Emergency Requests

If you have an emergency situation and need to contact Security please use the phone (usually red) in your college foyer to contact the Duty Security Supervisor. Alternatively, dial 3333 from any internal telephone, or 01904 32 3333 from a mobile, or 0800 32 3333 to make a freephone call from a payphone. Your call will be answered by the Duty Security Controller and your enquiry will be treated as an emergency.

If emergency services such as police, ambulance or fire brigade are required on campus, please dial 999. Once you have contacted the emergency services please contact Security, who will support the emergency services by escorting them to your location. You can also download the SafeZone App www.york.ac.uk/about/departments/support-and-admin/sas/slaw/security/safezone/
